

KEEP CALM AND SPEAK ENGLISH

Please Keep Quiet
in the Library

We know you're already aware of this rule. We had to put up this poster to cover up a bug someone squashed with an encyclopaedia.

School in England

✓ ✗

Dans ce cours tu vas apprendre à mieux connaître:

- L'uniforme d'un collégien britannique
- Les obligations et interdictions à l'école

Et tu vas t'entraîner à comprendre un texte

Girls' school uniform

In my school, we must wear a green blazer with the school emblem on it.

Girls must wear a white blouse and the school tie. My tie is green yellow and red.

We must wear a grey skirt and grey tights. We must also wear black shoes.

It's a nice uniform, I like it!

Tights

A blazer

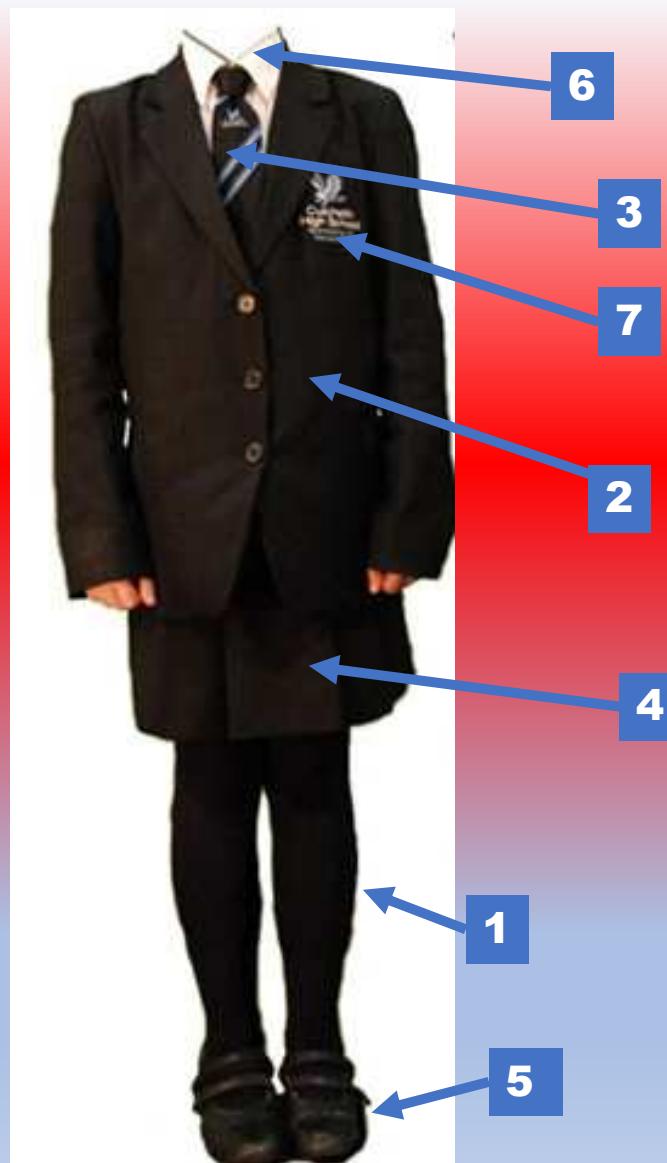

A tie

A skirt

Shoes

A blouse

The school emblem

Girls' school uniform

A school blazer

A blouse

The school tie

The school emblem

A skirt

tights

shoes

Boys' school uniform

Boys must wear a white shirt and the school tie in my school. Mine is green red and yellow!

We must wear a green blazer : you can see the school emblem on mine. We must wear grey trousers and black socks. We must also wear black shoes. I don't like my uniform because I hate grey and green

A shirt

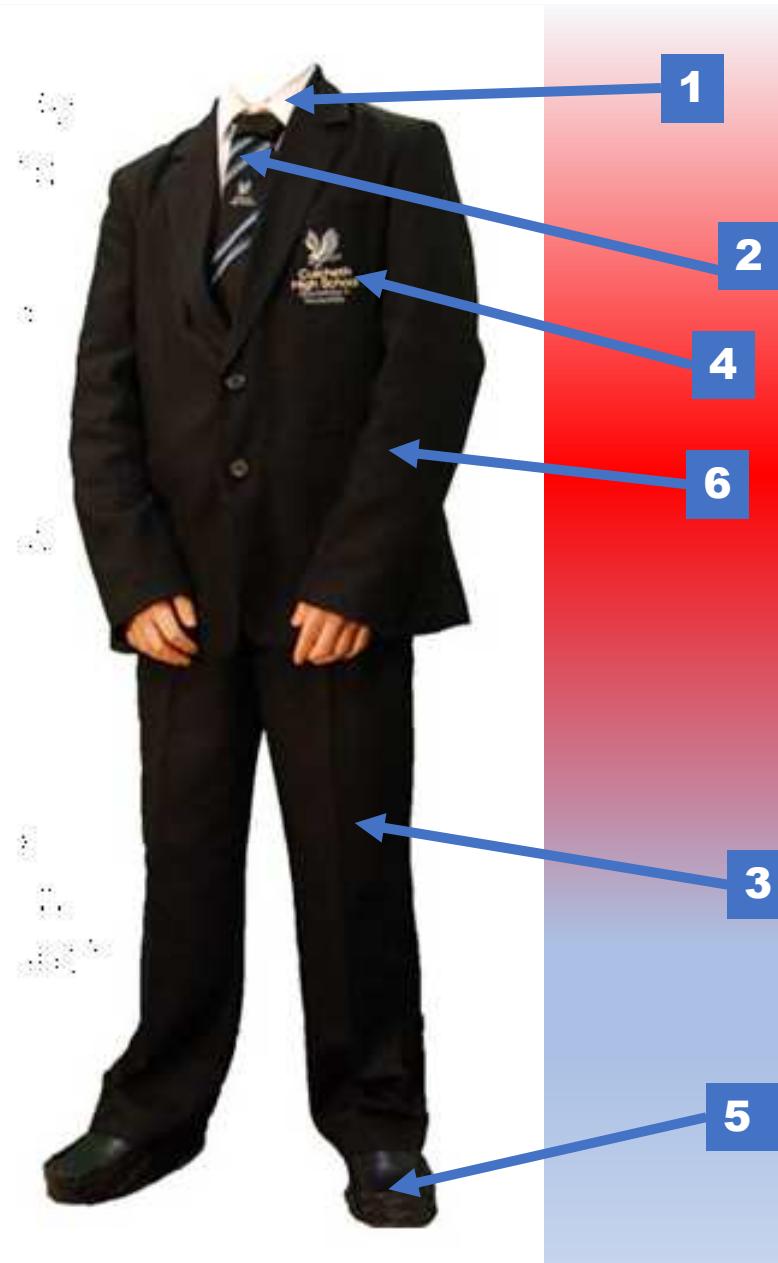

A tie

Trousers

The school emblem

Shoes

A blazer

Boys' school uniform

A school blazer

The school tie

trousers

socks

A shirt

The school emblem

shoes

Méthodologie

Pour t'aider à comprendre un texte :

- Regarde les illustrations ou le titre s'il y en a.
- Sers-toi des mots que tu connais.
- Si un mot ne te semble pas logique, méfie toi c'est peut-être un faux ami!

The school uniform :
a choice or an obligation?

Girls' school uniform

In my school, we must wear a green blazer with the school emblem on it.

Girls must wear a white blouse and the school tie. My tie is green yellow and red. We must wear a grey skirt and grey tights. We must also wear black shoes but we Mustn't wear trainers.

It's a nice uniform, I like it!

Pour exprimer une obligation en anglais j'utilise :
MUST + un verbe

In England, they must wear a uniform!

Pour exprimer une interdiction en anglais j'utilise :
MUSTN'T + un verbe

They mustn't wear trainers at school!

They mustn't wear a cat.

Boys must wear a white shirt and a grey tie.

They must wear black socks.

You must wear your uniform!

Girls must wear a blue skirt.

They must wear black shoes.

They must wear a blazer.

They mustn't wear jeans.

The library

Actions in the school library

Rappel

Pour exprimer une obligation j'utilise :
MUST + un verbe

Pour exprimer une interdiction j'utilise :
MUSTN'T + un verbe

Tu viens de voir que pour exprimer une possibilité ou une permission j'utilise :

CAN + un verbe

Remarque

En mettant MUST à la forme négative tu obtiens MUSTN'T
Tu passes ainsi d'une obligation à une interdiction.

En mettant CAN à la forme négative tu obtiens CAN'T.

Tu passes ainsi d'une permission à une non permission, c'est-à-dire à une interdiction!

You can borrow six books.

6
books

Let's practise!

Speak about the rules in the library.

You can read in the library.

You mustn't / can't run in the library.

You mustn't / can't eat or drink in the library.

You mustn't / can't use your mobile.

You mustn't / can't shout.

You must be quiet!

We know you're already aware of this rule. We had to put up this poster to cover up a bug someone squashed with an encyclopedia.

Now use must, mustn't, can ou can't in this text.

In my English class, we must speak English but we mustn't / can't speak French. We can drink water, But we mustn't / can't eat in class. We must listen to the teacher and we must respect our classmates.
We can ask a question if we've got a problem,
but we must raise our hands!

Dans ce cours tu as appris :

- À parler de l'uniforme britannique
- À parler d'obligations, d'interdictions et de permissions
- Comment mieux comprendre
un texte

Thank you very much, see you soon!

