Case XVII: Glamis castle

When I was a child, my mother, my sister and I went to Glamis castle. They slept in the more modern part of the building. I had a room in the Square Tower. The interior of my bedroom was really modern. The furniture was not old; there were no sculptures; no tapestries on the walls; no dark cupboards; no gloomy

Suddenly I opened my eyes, I was in a different room with a high ceiling. Opposite the door, the little window situated at a great distance from the floor was inaccessible. It looked like a prison cell. I could see only a little table under the window and an old mattress against the wall in front of me. Suddenly I felt something — something was in the corner of the
